

Cruise Guidelines (modified 03/07/10 by CRSA Executive Board)

All initial proposals will come to the Cruise Director in writing from potential cruise leader.

Information in an initial proposal will include:

Dates of cruise

Location of cruise/general ports of call

Number of participants needed or desired (i.e. how many boats do you want on the trip)

Captains already interested and/or needed number of captains, and needed qualifications (ASA, USCG)

ASA courses, if any, to be taught and number of students desired per boat for each course

Name, address, and contact information for charter company and following information:

Estimated Cost of boat/time period:

Estimated Cost of mooring fees during trip:

List and estimated costs of other know boat-related expenses:

Proposed approximate cost of charter per person. NOTE: Pricing of the cruise is a delicate issue. For the benefit of CRSA members, price should be substantially below what an individual could develop, but enough to provide CRSA income from the trip.

Required amount and date of down payment from participants, and non-refundable date

(PROVIDE ANSWERS TO THE ABOVE QUESTIONS WITH INITIAL PROPOSAL TO CRUISE DIRECTOR)
